Peter has been an International Business Executive for over 20 years. His Latin American heritage, Spanish language skills, and outgoing personality have made him a natural at bridging the cross-cultural climate of international trade. He has worked with many of the largest food manufacturers and food trading companies in North America. He has managed imports, exports, logistics, purchasing, sales, key account management, international marketing, government relations, export documentation & third country export requirements. Territories of focus have included Mexico, Canada, USA, Chile, Costa Rica, Cuba, Venezuela, & Puerto Rico.

Peter first got involved with Public Speaking as a way of developing presentation skills. But it quickly developed into a passion and talent.

Peter honed his communication skills as a member of Toastmasters International. He has been a Toastmaster for 10 years, and some of his achievements include Advanced Leadership Bronze status, Competent Communicator status and the Triple Crown pin. He has won numerous Speaking Contest awards including 1st Place in the 2021 Toastmasters International Club Contest, 1st Place Area Contest, 1st Place Division Contest, and Finalist in the District Contest.

In November 2020, Peter placed 3rd globally and was the Top Canadian at the Speaker Slam Inspirational Speaker of the Year competition. His Award-Winning speeches, “Love Transcends” and “You Can Call Me Peter” can be found on YouTube.

His love of personal expression has even led him to try Improv and Stand-Up Comedy.

Peter shares his communication skills through keynote speeches and communication coaching.

He is community minded and gives selflessly of his time, energy and resources. He is a member of Rotary International, an organization with 1.2 million members worldwide, and is the Incoming-President of the Rotary Club of Oshawa. He is a member of the 100 Men of Oshawa, the Greater Oshawa Chamber of Commerce, the Forum for International Trade Training (FITT), and is a Certified International Trade Professional (CITP).

Peter delivers memorable speeches and presentations that will inspire, educate and entertain your audience!
